Angel cake-Measure a cupful each of granulated sugar and flour after sifting once, and then sift together five times. Add a saltspoonful of salt to the whites of nine large or ten small eggs and heat stiff. When they begin to foam add half a teaspoonful of cream tartar that has heen sifted, and continue to beat until the whites are perfectly stiff. Cut the whites into the flour and sugar very carefully and flavor with half a tea-spoonful of almond flavoring. Line a cake pan with oiled paper-preferably the sort of pan with a funnel in the middle. Have this pan all ready and have it at the very oven's edge when you stop folding in the whites and turn the batter into the pan. Put the cake into a very cool oven and in about twenty-five minutes increase the heat, and continue to bake for twenty or twenty-five minutes more. Be careful not to jar while baking.

Lobster Newburg-Cut canned or fresh boiled lobster into small pieces. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in a chafing dish, add half a cupful of sherry wine and the lobster, and cook ten minutes.
